LOCATION

25/27 Clare Street is prominently situated on the corner of St Stephens Street and Clare Street, at the foot of Corn Street, within the heart of Bristol's commercial centre, with numerous banks, building societies, restaurants and bars within the immediate vicinity. The buildings is within easy walking distance of the prime shopping area of Broadmead, Colston Avenue (convenient for public transport), the Waterfront and the Law Courts.

DESCRIPTION

The property was built in 1903 in the English baroque style of architecture, originally for the Scottish Provident Institution. The building is an impressive, well known landmark and the accommodation has been sympathetically maintained to a high standard. Internally a light cosmetic refurbishment has been carried out to provide:-

- Gas fired central heating
- LED lighting
- Kitchen facility
- Dual entrances
- Male and female WC's
- Decoration/carpets throughout

Finishes also include marble cladding to dado height throughout the hall and staircase and extensive wood paneling to a height of 4 ft throughout the ground floor. The property is entered from the corner of the street, which gives direct access into the ground floor. There is also a second entrance which would be useful for a staff entrance / deliveries etc.

The property comprises several floors making it a good option to be used for retail, medical, restaurant or café use.
