Introduction

The Full Moon Hostel and Attic Bar is Grade II Listed with 17th Century origins, and has been extended and reconfigured over the years.

The main public house and hostel (Full Moon) has been a hostelry for many decades and has a rich local history, originally dating from 1730.

Development Planning Consent

In addition to the existing business the site has planning permission for the demolition of attic bar and nightclub and erection of a two storey building with further accommodation within the roof to provide extended hotel accommodation with 15 serviced one-bedroom apartments with associated refuse and cycle storage.

The Full Moon is detached and is arranged over three floors and a cellar. Internally, the ground floor provides the main public bar, lounge and dining areas offering more than 100 covers of fixed and freestanding furniture, bar servery, kitchen area with pizza oven, public toilets and ancillary storage. On the upper floors, there are a series of hostel bedrooms that collectively provides 120 bed spaces.

These are arranged in various configurations including dormitory style rooms, and more conventional double and twin rooms. There are communal toilet and shower facilities and a series of communal lounges and kitchens. On the ground floor, there is a bespoke entrance and reception desk for the hostel, with administration office behind and further storage.
